

03-08-2026

CW

Monday

Topic: Thank you Ma'am

1) What did the large woman have in her purse and what was missing from it?

Ans: She had a large purse that contained everything in it but hammer and nails it had a long strap. Nothing was missing from it, as ~~they~~^{then} boy snatched the whole purse.

2: How did the boy try to snatch the woman's purse and what happened as a result?

Ans: ~~They~~^{then} boy ran up behind her and tried to snatch her purse. The strap broke with the ~~simple~~ single tug he gave it from behind. Because the boy's weight and weight of purse combined, he lost his balance as a result he fell on his back on the sidewalk, and his legs flew away.

3. Describe the woman's reaction when the boy tried to snatch her purse?

Ans: The large women simply turned around and kicked him. Then she reached down, picked the boy up by his shirt's front, and shook him until his teeth rattled.

4: Why did the boy want the women to turn him loose?

Ans: He was frightened and wanted to get away. He kept asking her to turn him loose because he was scared what she might do next.

5: What reason did the boy give for trying to snatch the woman's purse and how did the woman respond?

Ans: The boy said he wanted a pair of blue suede shoes. Mrs. Luella Bates Washington Jones replied that he did not have to snatch her purse pocketbook to get some suede shoes and that he could have asked her.

6: What did the woman offer the boy after bringing him into her home?

Ans: She made him wash his face, gave him clean towel, worked him a meal, then gave him ten dollars to buy suede shoes.

7: How did women's attitude changed towards the boy by the end of the story?

Ans: She began by ~~trating~~ treating him firmly and almost roughly. By the end he treated him with kindness, care and trust by feeding him, talking to him gently, giving him money and simply telling him to behave himself. She showed compassion instead of punishment.

8: ~~How~~ Have you ever received kindness or understanding from someone when you least expect it? How did it effect your behaviour and perspective afterwards?

Ans: Yes, once when i made a mistake and expect to be scolded, my teacher listened to me calmly and helped me fix ~~to~~ it. It made me feel responsible and ~~to~~ become

~~and~~ I become carefully and also tried to show some understanding to other later

Pg 55

1 Read the story "Thank you ma'am and identify the elements of the story :-

1. Setting : Late at night (around 11 o'clock) on a city street and Mrs Jones modest apartment

2 Plot :- Young boy roger tries to snatch Luella Bates Washington's purse she catches him drags him to home, make him wash his face feeds him, talks to him gently gave him 10 dollars to buy suede shoes and let him go

3 Character :

1 Luella Bates Washington : Strong kind hearted women

2 Roger : thin poorly dressed teenage boy

4. Point of view : Mostly follows rogers actions and reaction by Mrs Jones behavior

5: Theme: Kindness, trust and understanding can change person's behaviour ✓

6: Conflict: External: roger snatching purse and Mrs Jones response

7 Internal: Roger fear and desire for shoes with growing respect for Mrs Jones ✓

✓
good