

Studybeesofficial

Where Minds Pollinate

Pakistan Studies SSC-II
(9th Book NBF)

Handwritten Exercise Solution
&
Complete Book Notes

FBISE 2026-2027

Follow Our Social

 studybeesofficial
 studybeesofficialpak
 studybeesofficialpak

Chp # 03

Activity:- Questions and Answers

Question no 1:- Describe the geographical location of Pakistan?

Answer:- Pakistan is located in South Asia with a land area of 796096 km^2 . It is 1600 km long from North to South & 885 km wide from east to west. Pakistan is located b/w the altitude of 24°N & 37°N & extends from longitude of 61°E to 74°E .

Question no 2:- What are the characteristics of Islamabad that distinguish it from other cities of Pakistan?

Answer:- Islamabad is the Capital of Pakistan. It is the one of the most modern ^{beauty} well planned Capital in the world. Islamabad is known for its ~~pristine~~ ^{green} green space including the Margalla hills, National park & the Shokar Puri. It is also the site of several renowned landmarks including the Conch emblematic Faisal Masjid which is a stunning example of modern-Islamic architecture.

Question No 3:- What is meant by Land Locked Countries? Give example?

Answer:- A Land Locked Country is surrounded ^{by lands} with no direct ^{access} to the Sea or Coastline. Example of such countries include Afghanistan & Bhutan. Being land ~~locked~~ locked can impact a country's trades & transportation.

Question No 4:- Describe the location of Arabian Sea?

Answer:- The Arabian Sea is a valuable resource for many countries from the view point of trade by sea. As the Arabian Sea is ~~best~~ located in a strategic position, connecting the Indian Ocean to the Persian Gulf. This makes it a major shipping route for sea b/w South Asia, the Far East & the Middle East.

Question No 5:- What are the natural resources found in Arabian Sea?

Answer:- The Arabian Sea is an important source of sea-food.

There are many marine life. It provides habitats for many marine creatures including fish, sharks, whales, & dolphins. There are three major sea ports including Pakistan, Oman port, Gwadar port & Qasim port. Renewable energy source, oil & natural gas & minerals.

Question No 6:- Describe the significance of Jinnah International Airport in Karachi?

Answer:- Jinnah International Airport serves as a major hub for "Pakistan International Airlines" (PIA) & other regional carriers, facilitating both domestic & international air traffic. The airport

Cargo

Custom facilities support significant trade & commerce activities. It handles a substantial volume of air cargo contributing to the country's import & export businesses, particularly in textiles, garments & electronics.

Question no 7:- What is Faisalabad famous for?

Answer:- Faisalabad is the largest textile production centre in Pakistan, contributing significantly to the country's textile export. ^{This} ^{the} ^{of} the city is home to numerous textile, mills, factories & production units. The surrounding areas of Faisalabad are known for producing wheat, sugarcane, maize & vegetables.

Q8. What is the strategic importance of Pakistan's location in relation to Afghanistan, Central Asia, Middle East, and East Asia?

Ans:- Strategic Importance of Pakistan's Location:-

→ Relation to Afghanistan:-

- Shares a long border with Afghanistan (dund time)

- Influences foreign policy and security dynamics.

- Focal point for cross-border in

- Foreigners impact Pakistan's policy & security dynamics subagency and militant activities.

- Essential role in facilitating peace processes in Afghanistan.

Pakistan played an important role in facilitating peace in Afghanistan.

→ Relation to Central Asia:

- serves as a gateway to Central Asia, rich in natural resources coal and gas.

- enhances connectivity through China-Pakistan Economic Corridor.
- provides direct link from the Arabian Sea to land locked Central Asian states.

- Positions Pakistan as a transit hub for trade and energy transportation.

→ Relation to the Middle East:

- Close proximity to the Middle East with historical, cultural, and religious ties.

- Proximity to the Persian Gulf allows a pivotal role in energy trade routes.

- Gwadar Port offers an alternative to the Strait of Hormuz.

- Enhances Pakistan's strategic importance in global energy security and trade logistics.

→ Relation to East Asia:

- Provides a strategic link to East Asia, particularly China.

- CPEC underscores the importance of Pakistan in facilitating trade between China and the world.

- Strengthens economic ties between Pakistan and China.

- Positions Pakistan as a crucial player in regional economic integration and connectivity.

Q9:- Explain reasons for the significance of Gilgit-Baltistan in Pakistan?

Ans:- Significance of Gilgit-Baltistan in Pakistan:-

Geopolitical Significance

- Strategic Location: Situation at the crossroads of Pakistan, Afghanistan, China, and India, Gilgit-Baltistan holds immense strategic importance.

- Border Proximity: Shares borders with China's Xinjiang province, which makes it a key area for Pakistan-China relations and projects like the China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC).

Economic Importance

- CPEC: The region is a crucial part of the CPEC, providing a direct link between Pakistan and China, enhancing trade and economic cooperation.

- Tourism Potential: Known for its breathtaking landscapes, Gilgit-Baltistan attracts tourists, contributing to Pakistan's tourism industry.

- Natural Resources: Rich in minerals and other natural resources, which hold potential for economic development.

Hydrological Significance

- Water Resources: Home to some of the largest glaciers outside the Polar regions, Gilgit-Baltistan is a vital water source of Pakistan, feeding major rivers like the Indus.

- Hydropower Potential: The region's rivers offer significant potential for hydropower projects, essential for addressing Pakistan's energy needs.

Cultural and Historical Significance

- Diverse Cultures: Inhabited by various ethnic groups with rich cultural heritage, contributing to Pakistan's cultural diversity.

UNIT 03 (LAND OF PAKISTAN)

LONG QUESTIONS

Q2. Describe the importance of following cities with respect to their economic importance for Pakistan?

(a) Lahore

- Economic Importance: Lahore is the capital of the Punjab province and is often referred to as the cultural and economic hub of Pakistan. The city has a diverse economy, with significant contributions from manufacturing, trade, and services.
 - Industry: Lahore is a major center for industries such as textiles, pharmaceuticals, and electronics. It hosts several industrial estates that support a variety of manufacturing activities.
 - Commerce: The city is a key commercial center, with a vibrant retail sector, including major markets and shopping centers. Lahore's economy is also supported by a strong service sector, including finance, education, and healthcare.
 - Transport: Lahore is a major transportation hub, with road, rail, and air connections that facilitate trade within Pakistan and with neighboring countries.

(b) Rawalpindi

- Economic Importance: Rawalpindi is closely linked with Islamabad, the capital of Pakistan, and serves as a significant administrative and military center.
 - Military Significance: The city is home to the headquarters of the Pakistan Army, making it a crucial military center. This presence has also spurred economic activity related to defense services.
 - Commerce: Rawalpindi has a growing commercial sector, including retail markets, IT services, and real estate. The city benefits from its proximity to Islamabad, with many businesses serving both cities.
 - Industry: The city's economy is supported by small to medium-sized industries, including textiles, leather goods, and food processing.

(c) Karachi

- Economic Importance: Karachi is the largest city and economic powerhouse of Pakistan, often considered the financial capital of the country.
 - Port City: Karachi is home to Pakistan's busiest seaports, including the Port of Karachi and Port Qasim. These ports are critical for the country's imports and exports, making Karachi a vital trade hub.
 - Industry: The city hosts a wide range of industries, including textiles, automobiles, steel, chemicals, and electronics. Karachi's industrial base contributes significantly to Pakistan's GDP.
 - Financial Hub: Karachi is the center of Pakistan's banking, finance, and stock exchange activities. The city houses the headquarters of major national and multinational banks, insurance companies, and corporations.
 - Commerce: Karachi's commercial sector is vast, with numerous shopping centers, markets, and wholesale businesses. The city's large population supports a thriving retail and service industry.

Q4. How do Pakistan and China strengthen their relationship through their geographical location?

Pakistan and China share a strategically significant geographical location that has played a key role in strengthening their relationship. Here's how this geographical proximity enhances their ties:

1. Shared Border

- Geographical Connectivity: Pakistan and China share a border in the northern region of Pakistan, specifically in the Gilgit-Baltistan area. The Khunjerab Pass, located at an elevation of about 4,693 meters, is a major crossing point between the two countries. This border facilitates direct land connectivity, which is crucial for trade and strategic cooperation.

2. China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC)

- Infrastructure Development: The China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) is a flagship project under China's Belt and Road Initiative (BRI). It aims to connect Gwadar Port in Pakistan to China's Xinjiang region through a network of roads, railways, and pipelines. This geographical route enhances economic ties by facilitating trade and investment between the two countries.
- Strategic Significance: CPEC provides China with access to the Arabian Sea, allowing it to bypass the longer sea route through the Strait of Malacca. For Pakistan, CPEC brings significant infrastructure development, foreign investment, and economic growth opportunities.

3. Trade and Economic Relations

- Border Trade: The geographical proximity has allowed Pakistan and China to engage in cross-border trade, particularly through the Khunjerab Pass. This trade is vital for the local economies of both countries and strengthens economic interdependence.
- Investment Opportunities: The shared border and geographical location make it easier for Chinese companies to invest in Pakistan, particularly in energy, infrastructure, and telecommunications sectors, fostering economic collaboration.

4. Strategic Military Cooperation

- Defense Collaboration: The geographical proximity allows for close military cooperation between Pakistan and China. Joint military exercises, defense equipment production, and strategic coordination are facilitated by their shared border, strengthening the security ties between the two nations.

5. Cultural and People-to-People Exchanges

- Tourism and Cultural Exchanges: The Karakoram Highway, often referred to as the "Eighth Wonder of the World," connects the two countries and promotes tourism and cultural exchanges. This highway, which traverses through some of the most stunning mountainous landscapes, is a symbol of the strong bilateral relationship.

Q5. What are the factors that make Lahore an important city of Pakistan?

Lahore is one of the most important cities in Pakistan due to several key factors:

1. Historical and Cultural Significance

- Heritage: Lahore has a rich history that dates back centuries, serving as a center of culture, learning, and governance in various empires, including the Mughal Empire. The city is home to numerous historical landmarks, such as the Lahore Fort, Badshahi Mosque, and Shalimar Gardens, which attract tourists and reflect its cultural heritage.
- Cultural Hub: Lahore is often regarded as the cultural capital of Pakistan. It hosts numerous cultural festivals, arts, and literary events, including the Lahore Literary Festival, which draws participants from across the country and internationally.

2. Economic and Commercial Center

- Industry: Lahore is a major industrial hub, with a diverse economy that includes textiles, food processing, electronics, and pharmaceuticals. The city's industrial base contributes significantly to the national economy.

- Trade and Commerce: The city has a vibrant commercial sector, with extensive markets, shopping centers, and a growing retail industry. Its strategic location in the heart of Punjab makes it a key trade center.

3. Educational and Intellectual Center

- Educational Institutions: Lahore is home to some of Pakistan's oldest and most prestigious educational institutions, such as the University of the Punjab, Lahore University of Management Sciences (LUMS), and Government College University. These institutions attract students from across the country and play a crucial role in shaping Pakistan's intellectual landscape.
- Research and Development: The city is also a hub for research and development, particularly in fields like medicine, engineering, and the humanities, contributing to national innovation and progress.

4. Political and Administrative Importance

- Provincial Capital: Lahore is the capital of Punjab, Pakistan's most populous province. As the provincial capital, it is the administrative and political center of Punjab, housing the provincial government and key administrative offices.
- Political Influence: The city has significant political influence in Pakistan, often being a focal point for political movements and activities.

5. Transportation and Connectivity

- Transport Hub: Lahore is a major transportation hub with well-developed road, rail, and air links. It connects various parts of the country, facilitating the movement of goods and people.
- Infrastructure: The city has seen significant infrastructure development, including the Lahore Metro Bus and Orange Line Metro Train, which improve connectivity and support economic activity.

Study Bees

— OFFICAL PAK —

— SSC —