

Studybeesofficial

Where Minds Pollinate

Class 9

English

Chapter 8

Handwritten Notes

National Book Foundation

Follow Our Socials

studybeesofficial

studybeesofficialpak

studybeesofficialpak

Poem:-

"The Eagle"

* Paraphrasing

Stanza 1:-

He claps the crag with crooked
hands;
Close to the sun in lonely lands,
Ring'd with the azure world,
he stands.

Reference to the context:-

These lines have been taken from the poem 'The Eagle' written by Lord Tennyson. In this poem, the poet describes the strength and power of eagle.

Paraphrasing:-

The poem describes the majestic power and beauty of the eagle. In the first stanza, the poet shows the eagle sitting high on a rocky mountain. It holds tightly to the rough rock with its strong claws, which are compared to the crooked human hands.

Date:

Day:

The eagle is so high up that it seems very close to the sun, faraway from human life in a lonely and quiet place. The blue sky surrounds it completely, making the eagle appear like a proud and powerful king ruling from the top of the world.

(Signature)

Stanza : 2

The wrinkled sea beneath him crawls;
He watches from his mountain walls,
And like a thunderbolt he falls.

Reference to the context:

These lines have been taken from the poem 'The Eagle' written by Alfred Lord Tennyson. In this poem the poet describes the strength and power of the eagle.

Paraphrasing :-

In the second stanza, the poet describes the eagle looking down at the sea from his high position. The sea appears wrinkled and small because of the great distance, and it seems to crawl slowly far below. The eagle watches everything carefully from the mountain walls where it rests. Then, suddenly with the speed and force of a thunderbolt, the eagle dives down towards its prey. This shows the eagle's strength and commanding presence in nature.

• Question/Answers

Q As you read the first stanza what do you picture in your mind? Describe the setting and the subject.

The setting is a high, isolated mountain peak, surrounded by clear blue sky. The subject is a powerful eagle, standing tall and proud, alone in his kingdom of heights.

R Which figure of speech

• Personification:-

The sea is called "wrinkled" and said to "crawl".

• Simile to eagle's

The eagle's dive is compared to a "thunderbolt". ~~thunderbolt~~

• Effect on the Tone:

The personification makes the sea seem old, slow and calm. The simile changes the mood suddenly, the quiet scene becomes full of power and action when the eagle dives. This makes eagle look majestic, strong and king like in no